

Thinking It Through: Discussion Questions for These Things 260503

- 1) Have you ever been on a treasure hunt? If so, what was it like? If not, what would it take for you to join one?
- 2) Have you read the whole Bible? If so, what translation(s) of the original language scrolls did you read? Have you studied the Bible? How so? When it comes to Scripture, what do you yet long to look into?
- 3) If later this week a friend asks you if the Old Testament prophets ever spoke of Christ, how would you answer them? What Scripture references would you think to point them to?
- 4) How would you describe salvation? What references (Old and New Testament) would you show someone who wanted to know how to be saved?
- 5) Read 1Peter 1:10-12. What are the “things” being referenced in verse 12? (the “things into which angels long to look”?)
- 6) What is so amazing about the grace God has shown you?
- 7) Describe the wonder or power of the Gospel. Give an example from your own life. When did you last experience the wonder and/or power of the Gospel? What can you do to experience that again/more often?
