

- 1) Our lives have many seasons and many changes. Personally speaking, what are you getting ready for?
- 2) Read Exodus 19:10-11. What does the word “consecrate” mean to you? Are you “consecrated”?
- 3) Look again at what the Lord commands in Exodus 19:10-11. Why was it important for the people to wash their clothes? How easy would it be for 600 000 men and their wives and children to all wash their clothes in the desert? What does that tell us about consecration?
- 4) Read Exodus 19:12-13. What is the penalty for crossing the barrier to the mountain? Why do you think it was so severe? What can we learn about obedience in times of consecration from that?
- 5) Read several different translations of Exodus 19:10-13. You may want to look up the word עָלָה <yă.ălû’> in a concordance. Were the people to come up the barrier at the trumpet, or go past it? Read Deuteronomy 5:4-5 and 5:23-27 and discuss.
- 6) Read Deuteronomy 5:28-29. What was God looking for among His people on the day of their consecration? Read verses 30-31. Why did God deal with Moses differently than all those gathered before Mount Sinai? What does that mean for us?
- 7) Does Christ mean to return to us? What is the Biblical warrant (the verses or passage) that informs your answer? Does the Father intend to also make His home with us? What is the Biblical warrant (the verses or passage) that informs your answer? Are you ready?
