

- 1) What is your experience with muscle memory? How involved was the 'rest of you' in that experience?
- 2) Read Exodus 19:16-19 and 20:18-21. Make a list of the things God's people experienced that day. Are there any commonalities, that you might put those experiences into categories?
- 3) Read Psalm 18:6-15. Make a list of the things David prophetically experienced. What overlap is there with Exodus 19:16-19?
- 4) Read Isaiah 13:6-13. What overlap is there with Exodus 19:16-19? Read Isaiah 24:1-23, 33:1-14, 34:1-10, Ezekiel 38:18-23, Amos 5:18-20, Zechariah 14:4-7 and Zephaniah 1:14-18. What overlap is there with Exodus 19:16-19? What of Jesus' description of the arrival of God Most High on earth in Matthew 24:1-35?
- 5) Re-read Exodus 19:16-19 and 20:18-21. What do the people do with their fear? What does Moses do with his fear? Considering what has happened since Moses arrived back in Egypt to lead God's people out, what experience(s) did Moses have that the people did not have?¹
- 6) Re-read Exodus 19:16-19 and 20:18-21. What do the people do with their fear? What does Moses do with his fear? Consider your answer to question 5. What allowed Moses the courage to do what he did?
- 7) Read Acts 2:19-21, 1Thessalonians 4:16-18 and 2Thessalonians 1:7-8. What overlap is there with Exodus 19:16-19? What is the same as all the other Scriptural depictions of the Lord's arrival on earth in all His glory? What is different? What should we do in light of all Scripture tells us?

¹ The message on Sunday noted this, and the prior message the Sunday before made much of it.
